

MAS Green Certified products are designed and manufactured to meet low VOC chemical emissions standards.

Our chairs are made to professional grade standards. They are built and tested for durability, stability, and usage in both commercial and home office settings.