ERGOSERV® BREW-IN CARAFES

The Stanley Commercial® Brew-In Carafes work with a variety of low and high profile coffee brewers, making it easy to take your coffee directly from brewer to tabletop without the need for a warming plate. Its superior FerroStat insulation retains temperature for 4-6 hours. Replacement lids are available in black, orange, and red. A CleanCoat finish eliminates fingerprints and water spots, which makes for a carafe that will look great all the way through dinner service.
