reclaim™

SIGHT + SOUND DAMPENING PRIVACY PANELS

RECLAIM™ Acoustic Room Dividers

Reclaim Your Space. RECLAIM sight and sound dampening panels are designed to divide larger areas into quieter, more functional spaces, providing an easy and cost-efficient way to minimize the noise and visual distractions in today's open office environment without losing the benefits of a collaborative culture.

RECLAIM room dividers are available in five colors that can be mixed and matched to suit any office interior. Constructed from 100% recycled PET materials, RECLAIM eco-friendly office partitions are available as a 24" wide, 66" tall standalone unit or a 72" x 66" 3-pack that can be expanded with individual panels that easily zip together to reconfigure workspaces into a variety of shapes and styles.

RECLAIM acoustic panels are lightweight and assemble in minutes without requiring any tools. And best of all, these innovative room dividers absorb up to 85% of ambient noise making them the ideal acoustic solution for today's open work environments and modern classrooms.
