

The background of the entire image is a blurred photograph of a bar. In the foreground, three glasses filled with brown cocktails are lined up on a wooden bar top. The glass on the left is in sharp focus and is garnished with a slice of dried orange. The other two glasses are slightly out of focus. In the background, the silhouettes of people and bar equipment are visible but heavily blurred.

GOODBYE GUESSWORK

How do real mixologists measure up? Let us count the ways.

Jiggers, cups, measuring spoons...

Because guesswork doesn't work.

The chemistry of the cocktail is all about that moment of transformation when precision meets imagination. So go on. Mix masterfully. We're waiting for you to invent the next great cocktail.
