

Does LloydPans have a warranty?

LloydPans warrants all products against defects in material or workmanship from the date of purchase for a period of 90 days. We will repair or replace defective products but will not be responsible for any consequential damages including any claim of lost profits. Warranty is voided if items are washed in an automatic dishwasher that damages the coating with the caustic chemicals that may be used. Sticking issues are not a manufactures defect.

Can I return a LloydPans product?

Yes, you can return any New and Unused product with prior authorization with a 25% restocking fee. You are responsible for the return shipping.
