Protect your Products and the Planet with our GoodGuard™ 24 oz. Multi-purpose Clamshell Package: This packaging merges top-tier visibility , patent pending protection AND sustainability . An ideal choice if you're looking to align with the growing consumer demand for eco-friendly products – this is your knight in shining armor! 'dp

Why We Love It:

Transparent and Clean: This clamshell is made with biobased content , offering crystal clear visibility that showcases your products in their best light . This transparency reassures customers about the quality and freshness of your food products without needing to pry open containers and peek inside .

Advanced Protection: Our exclusive patent pending GoodGuard™ closure features a state-of-the-art dual hinged sealing mechanism with an interlocking perimeter seal that enhances food safety , prevents leaks and extends shelf life . This design ensures that any break-ins are immediately evident , protecting contents from contamination and maintaining freshness . By choosing GoodGuard™, you're opting for a packaging solution that actively protects both your food and your peace of mind .

Robust and Versatile : Designed to adapt to a variety of uses, our GoodGuard™ clamshells withstand the pressures of stacking and transport . The cleanly tailored walls and robust top closure ensure product visibility and integrity remain intact , making it suitable for a variety of delectable treats .

No More Nasty Tear-Away Strips: Say goodbye to bothersome tear-away parts ! Our GoodGuard™ clamshells feature a smooth locking tab that stays put , no matter what . Customers can simply pull the convenient tabs for a hassle-free opening experience —no sharp edges , no flapping pieces, no worries . And the best part ? No small bits potentially ending up as microplastics . Ø=Þ

There's more where this came from ! This GoodGuard™ tamper evident clamshell is also available in an 8 oz, 12 oz, 16 oz, 20 oz and 32 oz size to complete your collection .
