Notes & Details

Ensure food safety and a consistent final product with this AvaTime mechanical 60 minute kitchen timer. Capable of counting up to 60 minutes, this timer is perfect for timing many of your prized dishes. It features an easy-to-turn knob with a pointed end that lets you effortlessly set the desired time. This, combined with the large, bold digits on its face, allow for easy visibility.

This timer features a long, loud 3 second ring that will be sure to catch your attention in busy kitchen environments. It must be wound up to the 50 minute mark first, then back to the desired set time for the alarm to properly sound. Additionally, the flat bottom of this timer allows it to be conveniently placed on virtually any flat, level surface. With this mechanical timer you can be sure you'll never have throw away unpalatable food, simply because you forgot to pull it out of the oven.
